PLEA AGREEMENT

Come now the defendant, Robert A. Knox, in person and with counsel, Rich Collins, and the State of Indiana, by Brian D. Lucchi, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the 57th Judicial Circuit, and submit the following Plea Agreement:

- (1) The defendant has read the attached Exhibit A; through the advice and assistance of counsel, the defendant understands Exhibit A, including all aspects which are specific to the defendant's case, and the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives any constitutional rights by entering into this Plea Agreement. With respect to any future request for a modification of this Agreement, the defendant understands that the Court may not, without the consent of the prosecuting attorney, reduce or suspend the sentence and impose a sentence not authorized by this Agreement.
- (2) The defendant shall plead guilty to the following:
Count 3, Burglary, Level 4 Felony.
- (3) The defendant shall be convicted and sentenced as follows:
At the sentencing, the defendant, the defendant's attorney, and the State may present evidence and make argument, but under all circumstances, the Court shall have the final and full authority to impose the sentence it deems proper.
- (4) The State shall dismiss the remaining Counts.
- (5) The defendant shall have no contact with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
- (6) The defendant owes fifty dollars ($50) in restitution to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] jointly and severally with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and the defendant agrees that this amount of restitution shall become a judgment of the Court. The defendant further agrees that any cash bond posted in this Cause shall be released to pay restitution. Nothing in this plea agreement shall limit the rights of the judgment holder(s) to collect restitution by other legal means.

- (7) The defendant shall pay court costs, fines, and fees assessed in this Cause.
- (8) The State hereby certifies that it has informed the victim(s) of the contents of the Plea Agreement; has offered the victim(s) an opportunity to present an opinion as to the Plea Agreement; and that the victim(s) have been notified that they may be present in Court when the Court considers said Plea Agreement.
